"Smart Choices in Long-Term Success with Trees & Shrubs"

Assessing overall site factors to ensure the most likely success of your landscape projects; selecting the best produced, and most likely to survive plant materials; utilizing planting and other techniques to ensure the long-term success of the landscape and your profit and praise.

Karl Gercens, III
"Plants that Inspire"

Looking to be a trend-setter? Are you ready for a few new selections in the garden that will make your space pop with color, fragrance or edibles? Let Karl teach you how!

Fergus Garrett
"Succession Planting for a long Season"

Internationally known, Fergus Garrett will use the magnificent Long Border of Great Dixter as an example of how to plan and put into practice a long season border using structural plants, underplanting and interplanting of bulbs, use of self-sowers, pockets of bedding, masking with climbers and good maintenance.

Coming all the way from England for our 20th Education Seminar!

Heather Zindash
"You Can't Judge a Bush by it's Color" - Look beyond what you see, using advanced IPM strategies

This talk discusses real life IPM situations that illustrate how important it is not to jump to hasty conclusions based on what you initially see or, what you think you know about the situation. This includes several examples where using advanced IPM strategies and digging deeper into the plant and/or site history reveals vital clues that turn assumption into fact, and ultimately results in an accurate management strategy for clients.

There will also be additional short programs that will include the following:

American Landscape Institute - An update

Alan Jones - Nurseries from around the world

Landscape Hub - An introduction to a new way of doing e-commerce landscape supply purchasing

What's new at Manor View and The Perennial Farm

CEU's Available for attending this seminar:
APLD: 5      ASLA: 4.25

Fergus Garrett

Appointed in 1993 as Head Gardner for Great Dixter by Christopher Lloyd, Fergus continues to keep the garden constantly changing throughout the season by trying out new plants and plant combinations. Fergus believes in passing on his knowledge through national and international student and volunteer programs at Dixter and through worldwide lectures he gives every year. Fergus is keen on plant communities in the wild and especially plants native to Turkey. Among other honors, Fergus was given the Royal Horticultural Society Associate Honor in 2008 and 2015, the Veitch Memorial Medal for outstanding contribution to the practice of horticulture.

Tony Dove

Tony Dove's career spans more than a half-century of public garden management and horticulture, ranging from director to designer to hands-on supervisor. His experience includes designing and developing the Gardens at the Historic London Town Gardens, in Maryland, where he is currently on the Board. He has served as Horticulturist and Acting Director of the Tryon Palace Historic Sites and Gardens, in North Carolina; Director of the Clark Botanic Garden in New York, and recently retired from the Smithsonian Institution. He served on the Board of Trustees for Bayard Cutting Arboretum, in New York. Mr. Dove is co-author of the book, Essential Native Trees and Shrubs for the Eastern United States, The Guide to Creating a Sustainable Landscape, Charlesbridge Publishing, Inc., February 2018

Karl Gercens, III

Karl Gercens' passion for horticulture started at an early age while growing-up on a 10,000 acre cotton plantation in Mississippi. After earning his B.S. in Ornamental Horticulture at Mississippi State University. Karl then completed academic internships at Walt Disney World in Orlando, Florida and at the Filoli Estate in the San Francisco Bay Area of California. His notoriety for using a pallet of colored foliage trees, shrubs, and perennials continues to funnel the exciting content of his professional lectures given nationwide and his horticultural classes offered at Longwood Gardens.

Heather Zindash

Heather Zindash is an experienced IPM consultant in nursery, commercial and residential landscapes. She is a Certified Professional Horticulturist, a popular Garden/Nature Speaker and former Graphic Designer. Also known as The Soulful Gardener, her mission is to "bring people, plants and nature together for health and well-being." Her diverse background allows her to entertain & educate audiences with creative presentations combining personal experience, formal education and specialized training.
